VOLUME VIII, NUMBER 33

NARBERTH, PA., SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1922

PRICE THREE CENTS

Spring Flower Show Will Be Held Next Saturday, June 3rd

Roses, Peonies and Irises From Our Gardens

Seasons are treacherous things and 1922 is no less than others, but Saturday, June 3rd, is Narberth's day to show its best flowers, and many blooms from many gardens will make an exhibit well worth while.

Our spring flower show has been for the past eight years a feature that our gardeners looked forward to, although it was not always possible to select a date that would suit every flower and garden.

Perennials are the mainstay of spring bloom, and of course the season regulars, their blooming time. The fall flower show, however, is for annual and biennial plants, and their blooms last over a longer period and are better regulated by the grower.

September 23rd, this year, will be the date for us this that will not conflict with neighboring shows and our dahlias, and other fall flowers should be at their best on this day.

Get your divisions and seedlings of perennials and annual plants and vegetables ready for next Saturday and bring them to the Plant Exchange. For those who have no plants to exchange, there will be potted ones for sale at reasonable prices.

Keep the children interested and have them arrange a basket or vase of wild flowers, substantial cash prizes are offered in these classes, also for arrangements of cultivated or garden flowers.

See the list of classes in the Friday, June 2nd, issue of "Our Town."

SOLOIST ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. John H. Patman to Sing at Musical Lawn Fete.

Mrs. John Patman will sing the soprano solo with flute obligato in the cantata "Night," to be given at the Musical Lawn Fete of the Community Club Chorus, Friday evening, June 2nd, at the home of Mrs. H. Jacobs.

Mrs. Patman has a voice of unusual range and richness, and sings a high D with more ease than many sopranos show on high C.

The leading characters in the Indian Love story will be carried by Mrs. Joseph Barclay, Mrs. Arthur Staples and Mrs. Farmer.

Mrs. Barclay, who will always have a warm welcome in Narberth, will sing the part of "Wawantayee," the captive maid. Mrs. Staples, who is also stage director, will enact the Indian lover and Chief, and Mrs. Farmer, "Nenemoosha," a discarded sweetheart.

Mr. Wayne Amy will play a cello solo, Mr. Joseph Nash a violin obligato, and the musical numbers will be led by Mr. David Spratt, Director of the Chorus.

In case of rain, the program will be given on the following evening, Saturday, June 3rd.

TENNIS CLUB SUPPER

The Tennis Club is planning to have a Cafeteria Supper at the Club House on Memorial Day. We hope all the tennis players will bring their families and have a jolly time. Wives enjoy a holiday when they don't have to prepare supper. The prices will be reasonable. If suitable arrangements can be made there will be dancing in the evening.

SHOWER

On Saturday afternoon, May 20th, Miss Corn Mackie, of 51 Montgomery avenue, Narberth, gave a Miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Edna Strong of Philadelphia. Those present were Miss Emma Leister, Miss May Nelson, Miss Marian Wange, Mrs. Anthony Hinderer, Mrs. George Troutwein, Miss Bessie Endlich, Miss Grace Endlich, Miss Bertha Brill and Miss Edna Strong.

CARD PARTY.

Mrs. W. M. Sibley, of 507 Haverford Road, will give a card party on her lawn Wednesday, June 21st, from 2-5 P. M., for the benefit of St. Alban's Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. Any Masonic lady or any lady in Narberth is most cordially invited. An admission of twenty-five cents will be charged. Come and spend a pleasant afternoon. Plenty of prizes.

Tennis Association Victor In Match

Local Team Wins Over Cedarbrook Club

A singular triumph was gained by the Narberth Tennis Association team on Saturday, May 20, at Cedarbrook, where the home talent ruffled up the cedar leaves to the sweet tune of 8 to 1. Considering the fact that the Cedarbrook team is composed of what was supposed to be the class of the league, with Paul Gibbons, of National Tennis fame, playing one position, one can readily see that the Narberth team is a snappy outfit, as my friend, the Duke of Androsia would put it. Upon considering the easy manner in which Lane, of Narberth, smothered Gibbons, for a row of dead sea cows, Narberth ought to have at least one entry in the big national tournament.

A detailed score of the match at Cedarbrook follows:

Singles

H. Lane, Narberth, defeated Paul Gibbons, Cedarbrook, 6-0, 3-6, 6-3.

R. Fretz, Narberth, defeated M. Landis, Cedarbrook, 2-6, 7-5, 8-6.

A. T. Grugan, Narberth, defeated G. M. McAleer, Cedarbrook, 6-3, 6-5.

F. Fretz, Narberth, defeated W. Smith, Cedarbrook, 7-5, 6-2.

J. G. Allen, Narberth, defeated A. G. Ziegler, Cedarbrook, 8-6, 6-1.

W. Y. Shaw, Narberth, defeated E. Geiger, Cedarbrook, 6-2, 6-0.

Doubles

Gibbons and Landis, Cedarbrook, defeated Fretz and Fretz, Narberth, 6-1, 6-0.

Allen and Grugan, Narberth, defeated McAleer and Smith, Cedarbrook, 6-2, 6-3.

Lane and McKillips, Narberth, defeated Geiger and Ziegler, Cedarbrook, 6-1, 6-0.

A surprise party for Narberth Tennis members, and in fact for all members of the community is brewing under the banner of Prez Billy Evans. In his best Bronx Billy tells his mysterious story, "See heah, old dasher, we have a big party we hope to put across shortly."

"Well, what is it," said Bob Pattison, coming lieutenant governor of Penn. "Any chance for me to sell some garters?"

"Ah, now, Bob, quit your kiddin'!" "Well, what is it all about," was the eager thrust of Leaping Clarence Little.

"Just something real that we're expecting to put over," mysteriously returned Bill as he jumped in his Buick and shot on the motor. "It'll be a performance that will bring many visitors to Narberth and add one more further triumph to the Tennis Association," he called back as he sped away at 12 miles an hour.

Local Ball Team Loses First Game Of Season

Is Defeated By Wayne In Close Contest, 6-5

It looked just like old times! The crowd was out in force and just full of enthusiasm and pep. The cheers and the groans were heard via radio all over the country! And the fair sex were there too and they don't come any more attractive than from around Narberth way. And the kids! Say, if you would like to hear some genuine sarcasm, just listen to those youngsters "up" the umpire on an unfavorable decision.

It was a real ball game all the way through, and our Narberth boys demonstrated to the fans that they are not looked until the last man is out in the last inning.

Oh, yes, there were the usual slip-ups and tough luck all the way through, but that's all right; that's what makes baseball worth while and gives us the excitement and something to talk about after the game is over.

Bill Crowell was certainly on the job in splendid fashion and helped the fellows all the time with his experienced judgment. And the boys certainly looked good in their new suits. Bobby Hood pitched a splendid game, but the "breaks" went the other way. Wayne has a dandy team and will give a good account of itself this season.

For a real heart-breaker we submit the last half of the ninth inning. We went to bat with the score 6 to 2 against us, and when our last man went out the score was 6-5 and men on second and third! Talk about exciting—O, Boy! It was no place for a person with heart trouble!

Don't waste your time or money on professional ball. Follow your home team, and you will be guaranteed a real ball game where every man is trying his level best to help his team win.

Come out next Saturday and help us with your encouragement to defeat our "ancient enemy," Ardmore. Game called at 3:30 daylight time; field Wynnewood Road and Montgomery avenue.

Robert E. Pattison, Jr., Is Nominated for Lieutenant-Governor on Dem. Ticket

Late Returns Show That Narberth Man Has Large Majority Over McAvooy For Place on Ballot In November

Robert E. Pattison, Jr.

Fletcher W. Stites

To the surprise, and certainly to the pleasure of his friends, late election returns show that Robert E. Pattison, Jr., of Narberth, has won the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

The nomination of Mr. Pattison, by a majority which will probably exceed 15,000, is one of the biggest surprises of the recent primaries. The Democratic powers-that-be had fixed it all up that Charles D. McAvooy, of Norristown, was to be nominated for the position. They laughingly refused to give any consideration to Mr. Pattison. But they failed to take into consideration the great influence of an honored name. Mr. Pattison's name was first on the ballot, and it was the name which his father before him had borne through two successful terms as the only Democratic Governor of Pennsylvania in eighty years.

The early election returns seemed to show that Mr. McAvooy had won by a big majority. In fact, "Our Town" last week casually mentioned the fact of Mr. Pattison's defeat. As further reports came in from all over the State, however, it became increasingly evident that Pennsylvania Democrats had looked to Narberth for their candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and that the popular boroughite was nominated.

Mr. Pattison's victory was secured without an campaigning worth mentioning. He is a travelling salesman which places him in a position to make the acquaintance of local party leaders in different parts of the State, and he indulged in a few speeches. Other than that, his name carried him through.

"The Evening Bulletin," in an article Wednesday night, waxed facetious, and intimated that the fact that Mr. Pattison was a suspender salesman put him in touch with a great many good supporters. True it is, that, despite party affiliations, he will be the cause of many split ballots in Narberth next November.

The following editorial, from the "Norristown Herald," home town of Mr. McAvooy, the defeated aspirant, should be of interest to Narberth people.

"He Laughs Best," Etc.

The biggest laugh of the campaign comes in the utterly unexpected reversal of form exhibited by the apparent Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, of Robert E. Pattison, Jr.

our fellow countinn, over Charles D. McAvooy, equally our fellow countinn, who was the handpicked candidate for the place.

Evidently the pickers overlooked a thing or two in preferring McAvooy to Pattison, who was an aspirant for their preference. They know now that there is something in the glamour of a name. There was no evidence that young Mr. Pattison was making much of an effort to smash the party slate. Rather his victory has a spontaneous ring to it, a tribute to the memory of the only Democrat in half a century to be elected governor, and elected not only once, but twice.

Of course, he was later defeated twice, for the mayoralty of Philadelphia by Warwick in 1895, and for the governorship, in the last of his three trials, by Pennypacker in 1902. But it looks as if "Pattison" is still a word to conjure with in the Pennsylvania Democracy. With their rare faculty of always doing the wrong thing at the right time, the State Democratic leaders overlooked this fact and ignored a worthy candidate with an honored name. They might have done still better had they picked Pattison, Junior, not for lieutenant governor, but for the governorship itself.

Anyway, he has our congratulations, something that up to this time has been prematurely given by others to Mr. McAvooy, who is now open to communications.

The Narberth ballot for the Republican candidate follows. We reproduce above, the pictures of both Mr. Pattison and the well-known countenance of our former Burgess, and next State Senator, Fletcher W. Stites. The returns:

PRIDE

And now comes the good news that Robert E. Pattison, Jr., has won the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

This fact, coupled with the unopposed nomination of Mr. Stites for State Senator and Mr. Wohler for General Assembly from this district certainly puts Narberth on the political map. If we be permitted to make a suggestion, it might not be a bad plan for his friends to advise Mr. Bryan to take up his residence in the Year Round Home Town. There must be something in the atmosphere conducive to the attraction of the elusive ballot.

There are many friends of Mr. Pattison extending their heartiest congratulations to our popular townsman; and from the bottom of its editorial heart, "Our Town" congratulates "Young Bob."

UNTRUTHFUL CAMPAIGNING

We have had handed to us by a most fair-minded Merion gentleman, a circular letter which has recently been sent to residents of that Community written over the signature of the Board of Directors of The Merion Civic Association. The letter is couched in no vague terms but contains an ardent and spirited appeal for funds wherewith to rehabilitate the apparatus of The Union Fire Association of Bala-Cynwyd, which it states "is obsolete and wholly inadequate and must be replaced at once if proper Fire Protection is to be maintained."

The letter further gives forth the following information to Merion dwellers: "You are dependent upon the volunteer service of the Union Fire Association, maintained by your neighbors in Cynwyd for their own protection. This service they have unselfishly agreed to extend to their neighbors in Merion and Bala. Is not such public spirited service entitled to your moral and financial support?"

But this is by no means all. A sheet printed in red and black accompanied the letter and among the various wherefores enumerated as to why the Merionite should respond contributively, appeared this, "THINK IT OVER—The Union Fire Association is the ONLY protection to your home, your belongings and your family."

To one way of thinking, this is nothing short of untruthful campaigning. We have no quarrel to seek with the gallant Union Fire Association of Bala-Cynwyd. No, indeed. It is a well organized coterie of brave citizen-volunteers and others among whom we number friends and a relative. In fact we encourage no joust with the Esteemed Board of Directors of the Merion Civic Association either, but we feel the urge to remark that full credit should be given our Narberth Fire Laddies who have established an enviable record for extinguishing and otherwise putting out divers conflagrations in the territory 'tother side of Rockland Avenue toward Overbrook, instead of ignoring them entirely.

It is quite evident that the worthy body of Merion Civicizers were not sufficiently informed on the subject of local Fire Protection when they inaugurated their campaign. Owing to the Zone method now in effect, the location of a fire has considerable to do with the apparatus, the aid of which is sought in the event of a blaze. And there are well housed sections of Merion from which no call would ever go to the Union Fire Association as said sections are within the Narberth Company's Protective Zone—save in the matters of general alarms when the Narberth apparatus would go anywhere designated, as would the Bala-Cynwyd company as well.

Often when on a hobnobbing hike down Wynnewood Road, we instinctively glance on crossing Rockland Avenue and remarking upon Merion soil, to adjust our shoes, our shoes and otherwise endeavor to look upon with such artistic fancy, but since having read the campaign matter to which these few words refer and witnessed the apparently deliberate omission of the protective service which Narberth has always gladly extended and will ever continue to extend to Merion in trouble, we are strongly tempted to leave off our shoes altogether on our next hike through Merion and even go so far as to work along with unwiped shoes.

The hardest task possible to accomplish (if the deer be human) is that task where the labor put forth and the effort expended is unappreciated, unrecorded and unblended.

It is hard to believe (but it is true nevertheless) that the Merion Civic Association should have seen fit to omit from their campaign letters any reference whatsoever to that country-wide renowned protective organization, our Narberth Fire Company.

But they have none the less done so. And they have acted unwisely by so doing.

COMMUNITY CLUB NOTES

Although the Club has discontinued its regular meetings during the summer months, there will be various activities more of a social nature.

Announcements will be made through the columns of this paper during the summer, so it is suggested that the club members watch the Community Club Notes during the summer issues. Should there be one week failing to give club news, watch for the following issue.

As you will read in another column of this issue of a musical to be given by the Club chorus on June 2nd, let us request our good members to lend their Indian rugs and ornaments to make this evening out of doors a success. Call Narberth 662 J, or deliver them to the residence of Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, 3 Elmwood Avenue, where this musical fete is to be held.

Remember the card parties being given every Tuesday afternoon on the lawn at Stepmey Place. There will always be room for one more. The cost for any afternoon's pleasure is twenty-five cents, which will go to the building fund.

Club members are urged to patronize the sale of poppies for the American Legion on Decoration Day.

BRING THE FAMILY WITH YOU

Narberth vs. Ardmore

THE TOWER OF BABBLE

By Collum Righter

The Column views with alarm akin to panic, the resignation of our popular Treasurers. While she held sway we had fostered some faint hopes of receiving our back stipend. Alas, now all thoughts of such a thing are but vain mental wanderings. We have not as yet manufactured a formal acquaintance with the new incumbentess, although we hold her in high esteem, but probably she will learn to hate us as consistently as do many others among the Narberth fair sex.

During the past week we overheard a conversation in which we were graciously referred to as a "slab-sided bone-head." And without malice we proceed to hurl the opprobrium back in the teeth of the whilom gentleman who connected it, knowing that he will read this week's paper and probably shrivel up in shame at the hearing of his malicious attack.

To be "slab-sided" indicates construction along superior lines—being of a substantial, imposing build, so to speak, which our Critic is most emphatically not. Nor ever will be. We deem GENUS RINT as his proper classification. As regards the "bone-head" section of the indictment, we are satisfied to "leave it lay." Far better to have an osteo-ranial protuberance above the shoulders than one purely vacuous.

We beg to be allowed the privilege of enlisting in the Bird Count. There are quite several "birds" in Narberth who are not on the list and the pleasure derived in writing them down where they belong would far overpay us for the labor put forth.

Knowing Hon. Dem. Nom. Wohler's yearning for political recognition and realizing that now he bids fair to satisfy it, we broach the statement that a man may secure most any prize toward which he aspires if he only has patience. Our Esteemed Dem. Nom. has had Patience for some years and we do no ill by remarking that she is every inch a Virtue.

One of our Hopefuls (who by the way attends Prof. Wilson's germ laden Halls of Learning) informed us recently that the giraffe was undoubtedly the highest form of animal life. There being an element of truth in the statement, we decided on forgiveness, but changed our mind altogether when upon asking where the book of Job might be found we received the answer, "In the Library."

We have read with great interest last week's article urging membership in the Narberth Choral Society. For the particular benefit of esteemed Prof. Nice, we boldly state that we possess a "middlin' good" voice and would like nothing better than to cultivate same. But the fact is, it's so dry in Narberth that we cannot locate anything suitable wherewith to irrigate it.

With the present and ever-growing habit of knee-high skirts among the powdered species of our luscious Borough, we find our eyes becoming more like sparrows every day. My, how they do persist in flitting from limb to limb.

We do not agree with Hon. Bergner. Not by a jugful. He will have a job on his hands convincing us that the dimensions of a garden have any determining influence upon the length of hose. From our observation (and there have been many) we have gathered that the graceful graduation of what generally is used to fill hose is the one and only thing considered when it comes to the question of settling the length.

"What kind of a husband should I choose?" a certain bewilderingly attractive local miss asked us last week. We advised her not to choose a husband at all, but to pick from the ranks of single men instead. Less notoriety would come of it.

We learned of a prominent flute player the other day who became so attached to his instrument that he made provision for its burial with him. Which spurs us to remark that we sincerely trust Hon. Shryock's musical tendencies will continue to center where they now do and not swerve toward the piano before he ventures on the Great Journey.

The Column has been accused of leading a double life. Hot Dog! No such luck. The nearest we ever came to it was an attempt at being frank and earnest. And this—even this—will sail away over some heads.

The relation of Narberth's Tennis victory over the Roxborough team took us back in memory some years to a certain hot, damp Saturday afternoon in August. We were playing doubles, in brand new white duck trousers on the grass courts at the old Lansdowne Country Club. During unusually fast net play we made a leviathan sweat at the wool clad sphere, lost our balance in the run-up, landed plunk upon Nature's cushion and slid a full dozen feet while on same. When we arose we observed a semblance of unbridled mirth bubbling from the beauty and chivalry adorning the Club House porch. It was not without reason, for our immaculate ducks bore an imprint of the map of Ireland on their posterior expanse. And they carry part of it to this day. But the memorial circumstance just related is by no means to be construed as material for exposition upon the Chataqua platform.

BISHOP KENRICK COUNCIL, K. OF C. COMPLETES PLANS FOR FIRST ANNIVERSARY

The officers and members of Bishop Kenrick Council, K. of C., of Ardmore, are busily engaged in preparing for the celebration of the Council's first anniversary, on Monday evening, May 29th, when a banquet will be served in the Women's Club of Ardmore. Owing to a large number of members and their friends expected to attend, the committee in charge has secured the hall on both floors of the clubhouse for the occasion, which will start at seven o'clock. The banquet will be followed by a dance. Not only will the Council's birthday be celebrated in this manner on Monday evening, but the Council's chaplain, the Rev. F. I. Purcell, rector of St. Colman's Church of Ardmore, has arranged for a Pontifical Mass at which the Rt. Rev. Bishop Crane will officiate. The mass will commence at 10 A. M. on Sunday, June 4th, at St. Colman's Church. Previous announcement of this mass stated it would be on May 28th, but it has been found necessary to postpone the event until the following Sunday.

Another important event on the Council's calendar is the exemplification of the third degree on Sunday afternoon, June 4th, at two o'clock at St. Katharine's new hall in Wayne. Candidates from the entire Twenty-third District will receive the major degree on this occasion, and as this is the first major degree to be given by the Ardmore Council, nothing will be left undone to make it an auspicious one. After the ceremony, supper will be served by the ladies of St. Katharine's parish.

The Council members are pointing with pride to the forward steps which the "baby" council of the district has taken during the first year of its existence. Comfortably outfitted, club-rooms in the Lyons Building at Ardmore have proved quite a drawing card to the men in their spare moments and all of the social affairs held by the Council have been extremely successful. During the past year the membership has increased more than one hundred per cent., being composed of men from various points along the Main Line from Overbrook to Wayne. Applications are still coming in and Bishop Kenrick's men are looking forward to the day when their Council will be the largest in the Twenty-third District.

The Blessing of Gas Service

Have you ever considered how our modern life would be affected if gas service were suspended? Where would be the cooked meals, the ever-ready hot water, the healthful illumination, the comfortably-heated rooms, and the various industrial operations made possible by gas? In fact, there would be untold suffering without gas service.

Queen of the Kitchen

Of course, we mean the woman who does the cooking. But next to her, a white enameled Gas Range can well be considered the Queen of the Kitchen furnishings.

Cheer is imparted by the immaculate white porcelain enamel finish and sparkling nickel fittings. The food is cleaner and tastes better. A damp cloth insures spotlessness—no rubbing or scrubbing required. See the white enameled Gas Ranges at our Show Rooms.

IMPROVEMENTS

Two noticeable improvements have recently been made on Haverford Avenue. The first of these, is the new show window which has been placed in front of the office of the Narberth Coal and Building Material Co., successors to C. P. Cook. This is a very attractive addition to this corner. The window is used to display the many kinds of building material handled by this firm.

The show window in the store of the Newpark Quality Shop has been enlarged, and entirely rebuilt. The new arrangement is very pleasing, and will give the new proprietor an opportunity to display better the varieties of goods he stocks. Both these improvements help the appearance of Haverford Avenue.

SCOUT SHOW A GREAT SUCCESS

Last Friday evening, May 19th, the Scouts presented an entertainment that surpassed all of their previous attempts to a very packed house and a very enthusiastic audience.

The play, "Jerry's Job," was a big feature of the entertainment and showed hard work on the part of the cast. The boys played their parts admirably, putting their whole heart in to the work. Scout Thomas Merkle had the heaviest lines to memorize. He took the part of an executive as though he had been used to it for years.

Edwin Griffith, as partner in the contracting business, showed his ability as an office executive absolutely familiar with the part that he was taking. Herbert Burrell, as draughtsman, was right on the job and proved by the expression on his face that he was enjoying every minute of his part.

Russell Sharp as "Jerry," the shiftless office boy, did wonderful work and serves a great deal of credit in the way he handled his part.

William Parker as the efficient office boy in a winning over "Jerry" to be a Scout did some very clever work which was highly enjoyed by the audience. Summing it all up, it would be very hard to find a flaw in the play, as it held the audience from start to finish in spell-bound admiration.

Scout Master Patten's reference to the past year's work of the Narberth Troop was also very interesting. Especially so was the report of the efficiency contest for the past year which was won by Scout Joseph Snyder, 1st Prize, a gold fountain pen and gold pencil, presented by Wm. S. Howard, of Howard's Drug Store. Atherton B. Lane, 2nd Prize, a catcher's glove, presented by Mr. Bergner of the Bergner Hardware Store of Narberth. Robert Patten, 3rd Prize, a Junior membership in the Narberth Tennis Club, presented by Mr. Horace Kempton, of 100 Avon Road.

The Minstrel show went off like a professional performance. There was not a hitch and lots of good jokes and songs. Scout Atherton Lane, as interlocutor, handled his part as an old timer.

Paul Longley in singing "In Sunny Tennessee," did very well. Although it could be noticed that it was his first experience as he was a little nervous.

Robert Ross sang "Weep No More," and was very well applauded.

Carson Knight, as an end man, was snappy and his song, "You Hoo," went off like a charm. Wills Wauwamaker was there with his jokes as usual, and showed he was an old timer.

Joseph Snyder also showed he was an old timer as an end man, and sang his song, "The Sheik," with a lot of pep. Robert Patten finished in splendid pep.

Robert Patten put his jokes across very distinctly, and in singing his song, "Dapper Dan," every word was distinctly understood. Howard Valtette as an end man was very funny and surprised every one the way he handled his song, "Leave me with a smile." Donald Brown was immense. His jokes were good and the pep he put into his song "Everybody Step," brought the house down. The Chorus was especially good. In fact the entire show was a great success.

During the evening Mr. Edw. S. Haws stepped up on the platform and presented Scout Master Fred C. Patten with a beautiful wallet, finished in solid gold with $125.00 in one of the pockets for his devoted service to the Narberth Boy Scout Troop for the past five years. The gift was made by several citizens of Narberth who have appreciated his faithful service. Mr. Patten was so surprised that he was unable to say anything, but the audience could see how much he appreciated the gift.

AS ONE MAN TO ANOTHER

Say, did you go to the Concert Tuesday night? What concert? You are behind the times! Why, the Elm Glee Club Concert, of course. It was great. "Professor" Stanley and those boys in Mr. Bailey's class surely deserve credit. They did some mighty fine singing. They had some outside talent, too—Mr. Walter Harshaw, basso, sang. The folks couldn't enquire him enough to suit them. I heard someone say that it was a good thing the Church windows were open, or he'd bust out the walls! That's the kind of a voice he has. Mrs. McGarvey, Soprano, sang charmingly. Mrs. George Merritt Davis is furnished an entertaining bit to the program in the way of reading. And Miss Phelma Bates, of Camden, the same.

One of the Kay's in the Kayceekay Trio was unavoidably detained, but the duet was top-notch.

And I must not leave out a word of praise for "Mrs. Prof.," the accompanist of the evening.

It was agreed that "a good time was had by all."

ANNUAL MEETING

MAIN LINE HEALTH COUNCIL MET LAST TUESDAY

The State Health Council of Lower Merion Township and the Borough of Narberth held its annual meeting at the Health Center, 53 W. Lancaster Ave., Ardmore, Pa., Tuesday, May 16, 1922, at 4 P. M. The meeting was well attended. Representatives from the Montgomery County Council, the schools of Lower Merion Township, the Y. M. C. A. and other organizations interested in Public Health were present.

The officers elected to serve for the following year were:

Mrs. Harold W. How, chairman.
Mrs. Roseanne C. Hoffman, Vice-Chairman.
Mrs. T. E. Caldwell, Secretary.
Mr. Wm. P. Landis, Treasurer.
Dr. B. K. Wilbur, President of the Lower Merion Township Board of Health, presided at the general meeting.

Reports of the organization for the year were given by Mrs. Harold W. How. Mrs. How told of the growth of the organization and of the continuing work with the Main Line Citizens' Association, Visiting Nurse Service and the American Red Cross, Main Line Branch No. 1, Public Health and Child Welfare Committee, to use a part office and share expenses. She also spoke of the aims of the Health Council for the future.

Dr. Rose, Physician-in-charge of the State Clinic No. 117, gave a most interesting report of the work of the Tuberculosis Clinic. Dr. Rose mentioned that the small number of tuberculosis cases reported in Lower Merion Township indicated that all the cases were not being brought to the attention of the proper authorities, and urged that this matter be given publicity. The program of the State Department of Health is to care for the hopeful cases in the State Sanatoria and, therefore, the need for the County Tuberculosis Hospital for advanced cases is very urgent.

Miss Helen Cole Carter, Executive Secretary, gave a report of the work accomplished by the State Health Council during the year. Contributions were made to the Fly Campaign. The Seal Sale was conducted and it was very successful, due to the co-operation of the whole community. In January the Inter-State Dairy Council signified its willingness to furnish milk free and to co-operate with the State Health Council in making a demonstration of the need and value of Nutrition Work in the Suburban Public Schools. The Haverford Township School Board was interested in this and on the basis of the conditions found there, the work was begun in the schools. Classes are now being conducted by Miss Jeanette Bliss, of the Pennsylvania State College Extension Service, at Chestnutwood School; and by Miss Evelyn Chinn, of the Inter-State Dairy Council, in the Oakmont and Llanerch Schools.

Miss Chinn made a most interesting report of the progress of the Nutrition work in the Llanerch and Oakmont Schools. She outlined the methods that are being used to make plain to small children rules for good health. She told that as a result the average for the class in gain has doubled that for normal children. All of these children were more than 10 per cent. underweight. In addition to the concrete class work, a general interest in health has been created throughout the schools. Dr. Robert A. Schloss, Assistant to the Physician-in-Chief, Department of Public Welfare, Philadelphia, and Nutrition Field Physician of the Staff of the Philadelphia Health Council and Tuberculosis Committee, gave an address on the work of the Philadelphia Health Council, dealing especially with Nutrition Classes. One and one-half years ago, the Philadelphia Health Council made a demonstration of these classes, following the plan of Dr. Emerson, of Boston, Mass. Today, as a result of that demonstration, there are eighty school nurses being trained to take over the Nutrition work in the Philadelphia Public Schools. This will mean approximately three hundred groups of children. An appropriation of $50,000.00 has been made by the City Council to the Philadelphia Health Council to maintain Camp Happy, a camp run on strictly scientific lines to complete the work in the School Nutrition Classes, by taking the children who have not made their normal weight and keeping them in the country during the summer. This camp will accommodate five hundred children all the time. The policy of the Philadelphia Health Council is to demonstrate what can be done in a community and then turn the work over to the municipal or State authorities.

Miss Peg Burrell attended a luncheon at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. Newton Brey, of Germantown, last Thursday.

Unnatural History

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE UNUSUAL

(Note—Their authenticity is not doubted for the Scientist offering them for our exclusive publication was such a nice appearing young man)

THE HYPOTHENUSE

A cross between the hippopotamus and the gazelle. Has the body of the former and the graceful legs of the latter; his skin being loose and hanging in great folds, hardly seems to be attached to the body. In running he frequently steps on his chin and is thrown heavily. In arising quickly, he so twists his skin that his back hangs between his four feet, thus in attempting to scratch his belly with his hind foot he must reach such a distance that he frequently dislocates his legs. Notwithstanding his tendency to skin, he is an honest animal, being as square as his other two sides.

THE DILL PICKLE

Discovered by Gottlieb Rausch, a Bavarian noble, in 1647. Constructed by immersing a non-edible gourd or footed with the rickets in a solution of strong alkali finished with the pungent seed of the dill. Originally used in lieu of a snudge to disperse annoying insects in recent times for less humanitarian purposes. First eaten in a moment of frenzy by a half wit. The poor man recovered his health, but his mind was never afterwards the same. The more modern version was used as a weapon—usually offensive. Few barkeepers in the rougher districts were ever without a protecting pickle within reach. Many patrons when under the influence, mistook the green muss for food, from which practice an unwholesome appetite was created which no other narcotic could satisfy. The pickle has never been successfully domesticated, as its life in captivity is short.

THE GLOW WORM

It has been but recently discovered that the Glow Worm is the cause of the early demise of electric light bulbs. While the clever manufacturer has covered the filament with a protecting bulb of glass, the more clever insect, by turning the light file, is enabled to reach the filament and to extract from it the electric juice. The juice being slightly pungent makes the worm glow contentedly, hence its name. Those attempting to raise electric light plants should erect signs reading: "This light out of order," immediately after planting the bulb. The Glow Worm, while intelligent, is very glib; he will read the sign and turn with a sigh to the current bushes.

THE CAMEL

A hairy, two-storied animal with a pessimistic head and altruistic feet—gets its name from a popular brand of cigarettes, probably because of the two having a similar aroma—used as a beast of burden in some countries and as a sign of the times in this, the land of the spree and the home of the crave.

THE LOUNGE LIZARD

A slippery, slimy animal with a beautiful skin and a long wild tale—infects the soft sunny spots—is calmed by the sound of music or the rattle of coin—is easily domesticated by trusting females, but only for short and irregular intervals. Like the mosquito, it may have some use in this vale of tears, but that use has not been

THE CANARY FISH

By careful breeding of long finned gold fish a variety has been developed which in some respects resembles the flying fish. By taking selected fish out of the water for a few moments each day and gradually lengthening the time of exposure to the air, three fish were taught to live without water for weeks at a time. Their tongues were split, thus enabling them to sing very sweetly, but without the liquid notes of the canary. Unfortunately, the cage containing these fish was left too near a radiator, the heat causing the fish to perspire, two of them being drowned as a result. The following day, the third, in a weakened condition, fell from the perch and broke his leg, with the result that it had to be shot by policeman. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the owner of these wonderful fish in his bereavement.

ASIDE FROM BEING A NUISANCE

rats are really dangerous. At this time of the year they are usually more prevalent and measures should be taken to combat them. There are two kinds of traps in use: spring and cage. The spring is effective for a time until the rats get educated, and then the cage is necessary. We have both traps at reasonable prices.
